

LABOUR
Wed. May 18/05

“This is a good result for the forest industry because it allows continuation of the forest policies put into place by the Liberals in the first term. These policies and the economic results they bring about take time to work and with another four years we have the time to see the results of these policies come to fruition.”

RICK JEFFREY, PRESIDENT, COUNCIL OF FOREST
INDUSTRIES