

$5,000
REWARD

Coast Forest Products Association offers to pay a reward of up to five thousand dollars ($5,000)

to persons other than employees of the Association for acts or information leading to the apprehension and conviction of a person or persons for theft, wilful damage or other criminal offence in respect to logs, booming gear, equipment, machinery or other property owned or used by the forest industry in British Columbia.

The above offer is made subject to the condition that the Association retains the right to determine and apportion the amount of any reward it may grant.

Any person in possession of any information in regard to thefts, wilful damage or criminal offences should communicate immediately with either the Security Manager, Coast Forest Products Association (891-1237) or the nearest police authority.

All claims for a reward should be made in writing to the Security Manager, Coast Forest Products Association
1200 - 1090 W. Pender St., Vancouver, B.C. V6E 2N7